POLICY ON SCHOLARSHIP AND FREESHIP

Right to Education is one of the fundamental rights of every Indian citizen. Nagindas Khandwala College believes in extending scholarships and financial assistance to meritorious students based on their academic achievements and any other relevant criteria.

This particular endowment, named the Bapardekar Khandwala College Shiksha Udaan Yojana is for the female students of Nagindas Khandwala College – Empowered Autonomous College.

Scope:

The endowment is meant for female students pursuing undergraduate, postgraduate, and Ph. D programmes from Nagindas Khandwala College.

Endowment Rules and Regulations:

- Academic performance and the financial status of the student/s shall be the sole criteria for being eligible for the endowment.
- Scholarship will be awarded for tuition fees only.
- The scholarship may be renewed for returning students at the discretion of the concerned authorities, provided they are still eligible.
- The awardee/s will be expected to complete their undergraduate/postgraduate studies from this institution.
- The award may be split among deserving students at the discretion of the awarding authority and in accordance with the minimum scholarship award amount established by the Management.
