Nagindas Khandwala College (Empowered Autonomous)

On 22nd July, 2024, we celebrated Guru Purnima in the staffroom of B-section to honor and express gratitude to our teachers. We touched their feet and offered them gifts as a token of love and appreciation. Teachers were gratified by the dedication and hard work of their students, as teaching is the one profession that creates all other professions. We are grateful to educators for their persistent commitment and enthusiasm, which have improved our lives every day. Teachers were pleased with the commitment and diligence of their students, as teaching is the one profession that spawns all other professions. We are grateful for their unwavering dedication and passion, which make a positive impact on our lives every day.
