Description:

Nagindas Khandwala College's Green Club, in collaboration with the Incubation Cell, organized an exhibition titled "Design, Build, Showcase: Unleash Your Eco-Friendly Creation." Participating students creatively crafted eco-friendly products using the principles of reduce, reuse, and recycle, showcasing their commitment to sustainability. The exhibition not only highlighted the benefits of eco-friendly practices but also served as an educational platform, promoting environmental awareness and community engagement. This event underscored the importance of innovative, environmentally conscious solutions and encouraged a collective shift toward a more sustainable way of living.
