SAPLING PLANTATION DRIVE

Date: 28 July, 2024

Venue: Respective Residential Area

No. of Participants: 87

Description:

The Green Club of Nagindas Khandwala College organized a sapling plantation drive on World Nature Conservation Day, encouraging students to plant saplings at their homes. This initiative promoted environmental awareness and highlighted the crucial role of trees in maintaining ecological balance. By planting saplings, students contributed to increasing green cover, which helps combat climate change, reduce air pollution, and enhance biodiversity. The activity also instilled a sense of stewardship, teaching students the value of nurturing and protecting plant life. This hands-on experience empowered them to take tangible action in preserving nature for future generations, showcasing the importance of individual efforts in achieving collective environmental sustainability.
