PLANNING FORUM

The Economics Department conducts various subject related programmes under the aegis of the 'Planning Forum'. The activities conducted by the Forum are Quiz, Essay Writing, Elocution and Debate with the objective to develop contemporary economic outlook among the student fraternity. Forum also organizes National and State level seminars, and invites speakers from industry to deliver lectures on Economics related issues. Our students have also been winning prizes at various Economics related inter-collegiate competitions

ARTH-UTSAV, 2019

Economic concepts and language are widely used in many professions to analyze everything from environmental pollution to political turmoil. Thus, the idea behind Arth-Utsav is to generate knowledge about economic concepts and recent issues, among the students. Arth-Utsav, 2019 is the 9th year of the event. It was initiated in the academic year 2011-2012 successfully. Through Arth-Utsav, we try to provide a platform to the participants to express their views on contemporary Economic issues.

THEME - INDIAN ECONOMY THE ROAD AHEAD

Springz Week

(Denim and Chocolate Day, Traditional Day, Formals Day, Camouflage Day, Tie and Saree Day, Black and White Day)

- Date : 06-01-2020 to 11-1-2020
- Venue : College Campus
- Organizing Unit/Agency : Students' Council
- Activity 34 to 39 :

The Students' Council organised various single day activities to liven up the campus. One such event was Denim and Chocolate Day. Students dressed up in denim and distributed chocolates among their friends.

In order to liven up the campus, students were asked to dress up in their finest traditional outfits. The students responded with enthusiasm.

Students were asked to come decked in formal attire. The students enjoyed dressing up differently for this day.

Keeping in mind that the theme for our intercollegiate festival was the Indian Army, as a run up to the main event, students were asked to dress up in colours that would make it seem as if they were trying to camouflage themselves.

Students enlivened the campus by following the designated dress code for the day.

On this day, students had a choice to dress up in all black, all white, or a mixture of both.
