Know The Departments

ECONOMICS

The Department of Economics at Nagindas Khandwala College is dedicated to providing comprehensive and dynamic education that equips students with a deep understanding of economic principles, analytical skills, and a strong foundation in Economics, which is a major course taught at the UG and PG levels in our College.

For many Commerce-based programmes, Economics is chosen as a minor course by the College. Additionally, the Department is also known for its annual intercollegiate festival called Arth Utsav, comprising various competitions centred on Economics.

The Department is ably headed by Dr. Marina B Pereira, who leads a team of competent and enthusiastic faculty members, viz. Dr. Monikantan S. Nair, Dr. Saswati Mohanty, Mr. Sonu V Rane and Miss Divya Chaudhary.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT AND PLACEMENT CELL [CDPC]

FUTURE READY-TODAY

The Career Development and Placement Cell (CDPC) of Nagindas Khandwala College is a link between the students and companies. We help our students find the right job and assist companies in finding the right employees.

CDPC seeks to equip students with 21st century skills. Udaan is its corporate fest wherein trainers work with student participants to build their leadership and management skills, through training sessions like mock interviews with industry captains and group discussions on trending socio political and economic topics moderated by well-placed alumni. Resume building capsules are arranged where the job seeker learns to fine tune their resumes to match the job requirements.

The Cell arranges for an onsite campus recruitment fair in February every year, featuring recruiters who are leaders in their sectors, offering diverse openings in IT, business development, finance, marketing, sales, customer service, HR, graphic design, etc. CDPC invites learner participants to make most of these campus to corporate initiatives

Know the Faculties

Dr. Preeti Tripathi -Assistant Professor

Dr. Preeti Tripathi belongs to the Department of Commerce. Students love Dr. Tripathi's lectures and dread her no-nonsense approach to assignments and dislike of cheating. On the other hand, her colleagues love her because no one goes hungry when she is around, and some colleagues dread her preference for a lower AC temperature! Ma'am's knack for encouraging and building teams is reflected in the way her students respond to her group assignments; her clarity of thought ensures that any task delegated to her is executed smoothly. This works very well for her colleagues because she is ever-ready to organise fun activities and ensures everybody's participation, thus enlivening the Staff Room. Her love for movies, music and colourful outfits are well-known, and there is never a dull moment when she is around.

Ms. Poonam Shah -Assistant Professor

Although all students know Ms. Poonam Shah as the coordinator of the Department of Bcom - Accounting and Finance (BAF), the naughtier ones also know her as a member of the dreaded Unfair Means Committee. Her meticulousness is reflected in the way she handles the Time Table and classroom allotments. Ma'am's colleagues call her the Finance Master since she deftly handles the financial aspects of all the non-academic events of her department. Ms. Shah is fond of spending time with her son, but her department assures us that she is not a helicopter mom. For her, family time translates to going to the movies, trips, or simple get-togethers. Since Ms. Shah is on the verge of acquiring her Ph. D, we wish her all the best.

Know the Administrative and Support Staff

Mr. Shrikrishna Sable- Junior Clerk

Mr. Shrikrishna, more popularly known as Krishna, has always been recognised for the sincerity with which he has always approached all duties assigned to him. Apart from an interest in reading, Mr. Sable likes to de-stress through a game of Kabaddi or Cricket. However, he recently put aside his hobbies and sincerely focussed on his education; his hard work has borne fruit and Mr. Shrikrishna has recently been promoted from Class IV to Class III. We heartily wish him congratulations for this impressive achievement and wish him the best of luck for his future aspirations.

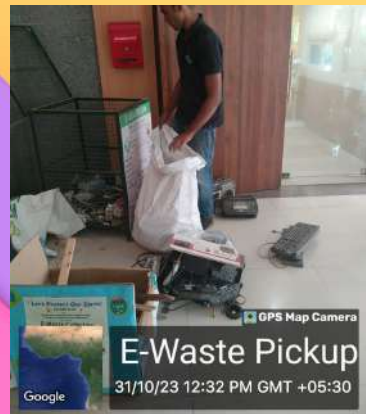

Mr. Dilip Patel -Library Attendant

Through decades of unstinting commitment and dedication, Library Attendant Mr. Dilip Patel has impressed everyone with his quiet efficiency. Taking on various roles throughout his career, Mr. Patel has, time and again, proved to be a hardworking employee who excels at multitasking. His empathetic nature leads him to undertake social work with the same dedication he shows in his professional life. His positive outlook towards life has also helped him overcome serious health concerns and resume work with greater gusto. Those who know him well remain in awe of his optimism, quiet strength and dedication.

The Recycling Company (Threco) picked up nearly 40kgs of E- Waste from the E-Waste Bin. The company appreciated the initiative of the College and presented a THANK YOU NOTE.
