IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR STUDENTS

Subject: Beware of Fake Instagram Account Misusing College Name

It has come to the notice of the College Administration that a fake Instagram account has been created in the name of Nagindas Khandwala College. Through this account, certain individuals are misusing the institution's name and reputation by posting inappropriate and misleading content, including images of students and falsely linking female students with male students.

The College strongly condemns such unethical and objectionable activities. This account is not authorized by the College in any manner.

All students are hereby informed and advised as follows:

- Do not follow, engage with, or share any content from such fake accounts.
- Do not circulate or forward any defamatory or inappropriate posts.
- If you come across such content, report the account immediately to Instagram and inform the College authorities.
- Students found involved in creating, managing, or promoting such activities will face strict disciplinary action as per College rules and applicable laws.

The College is taking this matter seriously and may initiate appropriate legal action against those responsible.

Students are requested to remain vigilant and uphold the dignity and values of the institution.

By Order,
Principal
