SERVE WITH COMPASSION

Date: 22th August , 2024

Venue: Outside the College

No. of Participants:22

Description:

The Rotaract Club of Khandwala College organized a meaningful initiative on the occasion of World Humanity Day, where several members dedicated their afternoon to donating food grains to the underprivileged. This thoughtful act of service aimed to support those in need while promoting the values of compassion, empathy, and social responsibility. The initiative not only provided essential resources to struggling communities but also inspired others to contribute toward making a positive difference. It was a heartfelt effort that truly captured the spirit of the day and reinforced the club's commitment to humanitarian values.
