

Rotaract Club of Khandwala

Organizes

SPREAD A SMILE

Date: 14th November, 2024

Venue: Online

No. of Participants: 6

Description

A self-organized initiative dedicated to making Children's Day special for underprivileged kids, this event witnessed volunteers distributing stationery, books, and other gifts. The atmosphere was warm and hopeful, marked by moments of pure joy as children received these tokens of kindness. Volunteers engaged in conversations, making connections that inspired a sense of belonging. The initiative likely motivated the children to stay hopeful about their futures and pursue education. For volunteers, it was a humbling experience, reminding them of the impact that small gestures can have, and reinforcing the value of spreading happiness in ways that truly matter.

Brochure

Brochure of the event

[illegible]

Photographs

Participants distributing goodies to needing children with the motive of spreading smiles

Participants distributing gifts to people craving for attention and spreading kindness