Venue: Veer Savarkar,Udayan,Borivali West.

No. of Participants:11

Description

This collaborative event with Junoon Foundation brought together participants and underprivileged children to celebrate India's Independence Day. The day was likely filled with songs, stories, and games that inspired a sense of belonging and pride in the nation. The atmosphere was festive and colorful, with participants sharing moments of joy and learning about the significance of the day. The children probably felt valued and encouraged, gaining deeper knowledge about their heritage. The volunteers strengthened their bond with the younger generation, nurturing a hopeful and united future. Together, the event celebrated freedom and belonging, reminding everyone of the responsibility to build a brighter tomorrow.
