Description

The Rotaract Club of Khandwala College organized the Empowering Equality event, which aimed at raising awareness about human rights and fostering a spirit of inclusivity and respect. The event was thoughtfully managed by the BODs ensuring smooth coordination between members and an engaging experience for all attendees. As part of the initiative, participants were shown a powerful and insightful documentary on human rights, shedding light on the ongoing struggles and triumphs in the journey towards global equality. The session was followed by an open discussion, encouraging participants to reflect on the content and share their perspectives, making it an informative and impactful gathering.
