VERSE AND VISION

Date: 20th - 21st December, 2024

Venue: Online

No. of Participants: 77

Description

In Verse and Vision, participants wrote heartfelt poems and combined them with meaningful imagery to produce digital poetic visuals. The poems had to resonate with the chosen image, creating an immersive emotional experience. This event emphasized the harmony between textual emotion and visual impact. It nurtured literary creativity, emotional intelligence, and basic digital editing skills. The combination of art and poetry allowed participants to explore new dimensions of expression and artistic presentation.

Shine Set's

When I Try to move near the sky,
Almost a 15 floor high.

I pitch the glance of sunbeams foremost,
To tender my heart which was lost.

My mind goes calm and recives
peace,
Like for the first time you have met your niece.

Cool air around me is the perk,
Gazing the sun feels like cherry on the top.

What if the shine moves along with the sun,
Will earth be able to have the fun?

So the brother promises to come,
For us to continue our pun.

So here's an end and comes the moon,
With the light of farwell tune.

And the sun goes down with all pride,
And the stars come up to bid a good bye.
