Description

Future Minds was an engaging and thought-provoking article writing competition where participants were invited to express their vision for the future of India. The theme focused on imagining a progressive, inclusive, and innovative India through the lens of youth. Participants explored topics such as technological advancement, environmental sustainability, social justice, and economic development. This event allowed them to critically analyze the current socio-political scenario and envision transformative solutions. The potential learning outcomes included enhanced research skills, effective articulation of ideas, a deeper understanding of national challenges, and the importance of optimistic and informed civic engagement.
