

Nagindas Khandwala College (Empowered Autonomous)

Rotaract Club of Khandwala

Organizes

PAGES OF PRIDE

Date: 16th & 17th January, 2025

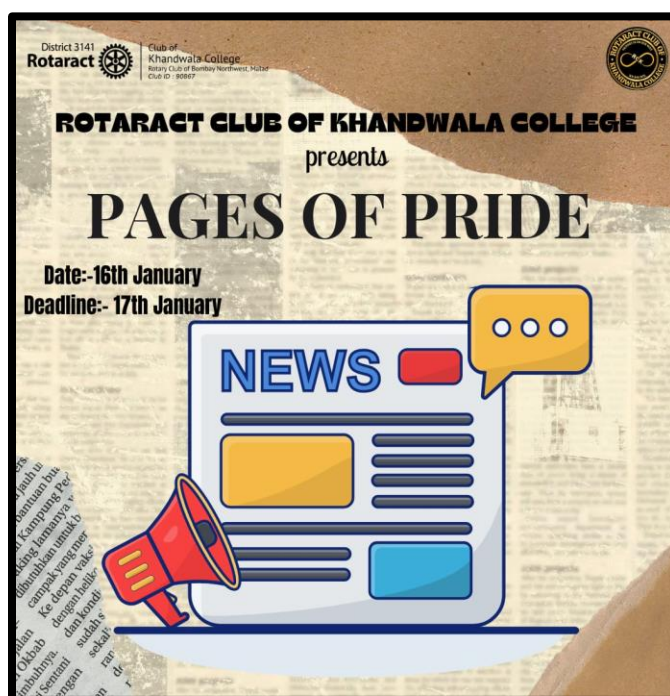

Venue: Online

No. of Participants:12

Description

Pages of Pride was a newsletter-making event where participants documented the journey, achievements, and highlights of the Rotaract Club of Khandwala College. The objective was to celebrate the club's milestones while enhancing communication and documentation skills. Participants got hands-on experience in designing layouts, writing impactful content, and curating visuals—skills vital for professional publication and media management. The event also reinforced a sense of belonging and pride in RCK's legacy.

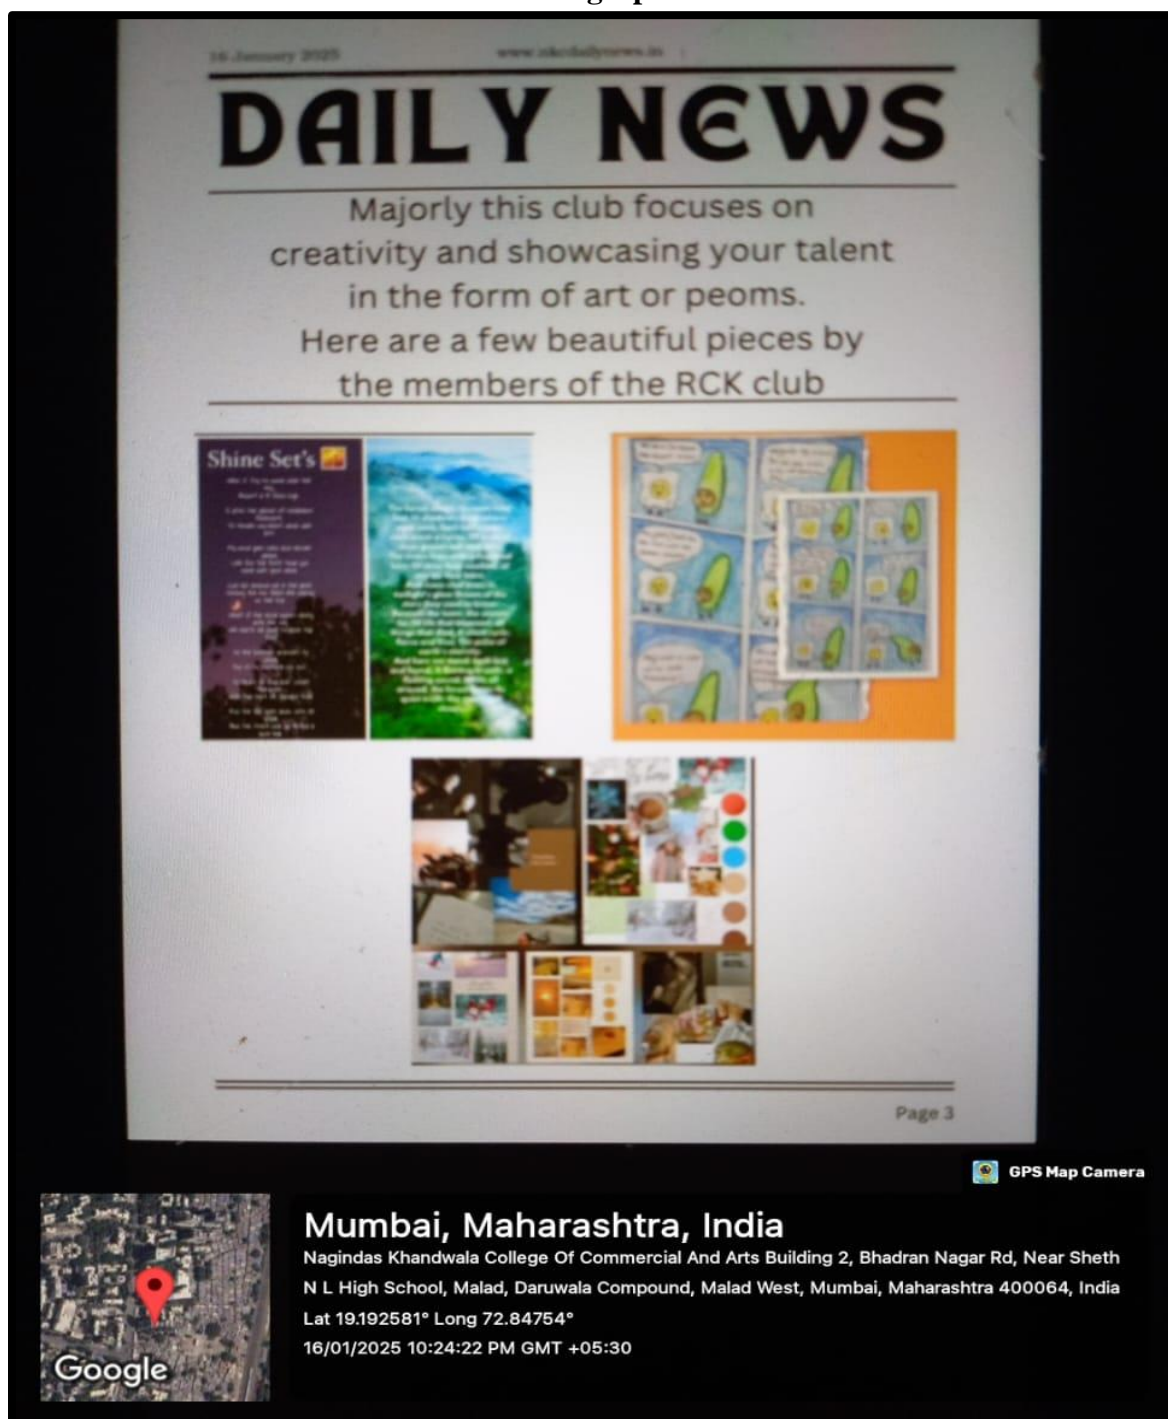

Brochure

Brochure of the event

[illegible]

Photographs

Participants were made to write newsletter headlines regarding their RCK Event.

16 January 2025

www.nkcdailynews.in

DAILY NEWS

The RCK club hosts many events of various kinds for their members. These events helps them unravel their creativity side and showcase it

RCK hosts various activities and events that foster to public services and initiatives too like Pack a meal for the needy, Christmas party with kids etc.

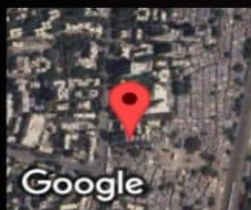

They even organise road cleaning and beach cleaning promoting the need to keep our environment clean.

Expressing Gratitude is also one of the events that helped students to be thankful to the people that help us on a daily basis.

Page 2

GPS Map Camera

Mumbai, Maharashtra, India

Nagindas Khandwala College Of Commercial And Arts Building 2, Bhadran Nagar Rd, Near Sheth N L High School, Malad, Daruwala Compound, Malad West, Mumbai, Maharashtra 400064, India

Lat 19.192581° Long 72.84754°

16/01/2025 10:24:40 PM GMT +05:30

Amazing news covers were made by the students describing each event the experienced in details.